The Dean's Message

Kyla K. Rosenberger
BM, MM, CAGO

Hello FWAGO Members,

It's difficult to find time for everything, isn't it? We all love studying new repertoire, reading music history and going to organ recitals. But real life demands so often get in the way and we can't always squeeze in occasional private lessons or personal study of style and theory.

Being a member of this chapter, though, gives you an opportunity to give your interests preference. Come to the Saturday, February 13 Masterclass on German Romantic Repertoire. It is from 10 a.m. to noon and will be taught by Stefan Engles, Professor of Organ, SMU. Think of these famous composers: Mendelssohn, Rheinberger, Brahms, Schumann, Liszt, Reubke, and Reger. Whether we play their major works or their short, service music it is important to think about the appropriate way to interpret these masters who chose to write for our instrument.

The chapter yearbook left out the location. It is in the beautiful sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church in downtown Fort Worth. There is plenty of parking. Robert August, Director of Music/Organist, has prepared a special educational and listening opportunity for you.

Hope to see you there!

Kyla K. Rosenberger, CAGO

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

On Saturday, February 13 from 10 a.m. – 12pm, Stefan Engels will present an organ masterclass at First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth. The focus of this masterclass will be on romantic German repertoire. All are encouraged to attend and visitors are welcome. For more information please contact Robert August at 817-335-1231 or jsbach_august@yahoo.com.

Stefan Engels joined Southern Methodist University in fall 2014 as the new Leah Young Fullinwider Endowed Centennial Chair in Music Performance at the Meadows School of the Arts. Engels joined SMU from one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious musical institutions, the University of Music and Theatre "Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy" in Leipzig, Germany, where he had served as professor of organ since 2005. Prior to that he was associate professor of organ and chair of the organ department at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey.

During his appointment in Leipzig, Engels helped shape the university's Church Music Institute as a center for organ performance and organ pedagogy of international acclaim. He also founded and served as artistic director of the European Organ Academy Leipzig, which attracts faculty and students from around the world. In 2009 the Academy was given a generous grant from the German Academic Exchange Service. Engels is also the initiator and chair of the jury for the International Competition in Organ Improvisation in Leipzig. In 2006 Engels was named artistic director of the Jordan International Organ Competition based at Columbus State University in Columbus, GA. As a juror, he is in frequent demand at international organ competitions such as the Mendelssohn Competition, the Bach Competition and the Deutscher Musikwettbewerb, all in Germany, as well as the St. Albans International Organ Festival and the Canadian International Organ Competition. Furthermore, as an advocate and specialist for the music of the late-Romantic German composer Sigfrid Karg-Elert, he founded the Karg-Elert Festtage in Leipzig, demonstrating and discovering the unique works of this Leipzig composer.

Engels maintains a vigorous international concert schedule and is a sought-after teacher, having presented lectures and master classes across Europe, North America and South Korea. Recital engagements have included Smetana Hall in Prague, St. Paul's Cathedral in London, Victoria Hall in Geneva, the Berlin Philharmonic, Gewandhaus Leipzig, Torch Centre in Seoul, St. Augustine in Vienna, Chartres Cathedral, Hallgrímskirkja Reykjavik, Sydney Cathedral, St. Jakobi Lübeck, Harvard University, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Meyerson Symphony Center in Dallas, King's College Cambridge, Spivey Hall in Atlanta, Balboa Park in San Diego and the Cadet Chapel of West Point. He was a featured recitalist at the 2006 national convention of the American Guild of Organists in Chicago.

Engels has recorded two highly acclaimed CDs with works by Marcel Dupré on the Naxos label, and one with works of Karg-Elert, Reger, Messiaen and Germani on the Priory label as part of their Great European Organ Series. His specialization in the organ works of Sigfrid Karg-Elert has resulted in the world premiere recording of the complete organ works of Karg-Elert, also on the Priory label. Of this 14-CD project, eight CDs are now available for purchase and have been reviewed to the highest international acclaim.

Engels received his broad musical education in Germany and the United States. He studied organ, piano, harpsichord, choral conducting and church music at the universities in Aachen, Düsseldorf and Cologne. From 1993 until 1998 he pursued further organ studies with Wolfgang RübSam in Chicago and the late Robert Anderson in Dallas, receiving an Artist Certificate degree from SMU Meadows in 1995. He achieved his international breakthrough when he was awarded the "Concerto Gold Medal" at the 1998 Calgary International Organ Competition. Since then he has been represented by Karen McFarlane Artists Inc. of Cleveland, Ohio.

Member and Chapter Happenings

Appointment to National Committee on Conventions

Our long-time member, Dr. H. Joseph Butler, AAGO, has just been appointed to the AGO national committee on conventions. This is a prestigious appointment - very few AGO members are invited to sit on national committees. The conventions committee selects the chapters that will host regional and national conventions; oversees and approves planning, programming, and budgeting of those conventions; and evaluates conventions upon their completion. Dr. Butler's appointment was most likely influenced by the very successful regional convention our chapter hosted under Dr. Butler's direction as Convention Coordinator. Congratulations to Dr. Butler!

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED

January 28, 2016

ST. MARIA GORETTI CATHOLIC CHURCH

Todd Hughes, our chapter member and organist at St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church, hosted our chapter's Let's Get Acquainted event January 28, 2016, at his church. Freda Breed, Director of Liturgy and Music at the church welcomed the group. Besides Freda and Todd, a group of 9 attended the session to hear and play the Garland 4 manual pipe organ installed a few years ago. Attending: Ed Ackermann, Dale Bench, Phil Bordeleaux, Carol Kocher, Chinh Ngugen, Joyce Ngugen, Eugene Oehler, and Dennis Opferman. Todd opened the session by playing "Solemn Melody" by Sir Walford Davies which displayed the organ's full tonal and dynamic range. After all had played, there was a Dutch treat lunch at a nearby Blue Mesa restaurant. (Submitted by Ed Ackermann, CAGO.)

PIPEDREAMS IS BACK ON THE AIR!

The Dallas and Fort Worth AGO Chapters are jointly sponsoring the WRR 101.1 FM radio broadcast of Pipedreams during calendar year 2016. WRR had to drop the program the end of September, 2015, due to lack of funding. Executive Committees of both chapters approved the project. The program will be aired on WRR 101.1 FM Classical Radio every Sunday night from 10 to 11 p.m. during 2016 (and WRR also agreed to include broadcasts for the last 3 Sundays of December, 2015).

The joint chapter venture helps fulfill the AGO mission by promoting the organ and engaging wider audiences. Cost of the contract was $3,870 with each chapter paying 50% or $1,935. That's a low cost considering that engaging a concert organist from the major booking agencies is in the range of $3,000 to $5,000 just for one recital presented to usually a rather limited audience. The WRR broadcast has a 100 mile radius and reaches many who otherwise never hear organ music. The chapters will have the opportunity to consider renewing the contract for 2017 next October at the same price and provisions as the 2016 contract.

Each broadcast recognizes both chapters as sponsors at the beginning and at the end of each broadcast. Other recognition includes:

- A one minute ad within five minutes preceding and following the broadcast to promote the both chapters' AGO outreach to the community at large and to solicit members and donations.
- Five separate ads, each repeated up to 24 times and aired at the best time available Monday – Sunday during prime broadcast time (5 a.m. – 10 p.m.) during 2016.
- A poster included on WRR's website's home page in a rotating banner.

The project was proposed by Ed Ackermann, a member of both chapters. The chapter deans appointed Ed as Pipedreams Project Coordinator to manage any actions required during the contract year, including drafting and coordinating ad material to be aired or included on the WRR website.

JOHANNUS BUYS RODGERS!

The Roland Corporation posted a press release on January 4, 2016, reporting that Johannus will acquire the Rodgers electronic organ subsidiary of Roland effective January 15, 2016. It is expected Johannus will keep the Rodgers manufacturing plant in Oregon and continue the brand. In addition to Rodgers, Johannus has bought two English electronic organ companies: Copeman Hart and Makin. (Roland bought Rodgers some years ago from the original owners.)

Pipedreams - Celebrating the Pipe Organ

Celebrating more than thirty years on the air, Pipedreams is the only weekly radio program that explores the full range of the art and potential of the pipe organ.

Each week, Pipedreams host Michael Barone shares selected organ works and performances, and in doing so, encourages listeners to engage both their ears and imaginations to gain greater appreciation of this instrument. He talks with composers, organists, organ builders and restorers. The show features brand new instruments in churches and concert halls, plus historic pipe organs recorded in locations around the world, from ancient instruments in vast cathedrals to the "mighty Wurlitzers" of movie house fame.

Hymn Sing – Recital at University Christian Church

Come sing hymns with the visiting ministers at Ministers Week during this special day-time event. Enjoy the superb playing of a nationally known composer and organist. Dr. Bedford trained at TCU, the Hochschule für Musik in Cologne, Germany, and the University of North Texas. His successful choral, handbell and organ music compositions grace the music programs of churches nationwide. The recital will feature a range of styles, from German to French to American, and it will feature Mr. Bedford's compositions, too. He is Organist/Choirmaster Emeritus of St. John's Episcopal Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma, but chapter members know Mr. Bedford as a two-term Regional Councilor. He will also be on the next national ballot for President of AGO.

Fort Worth AGO Chapter APPROVED SUBSTITUTES ROSTER

(As of July 19, 2015)

EMPLOYERS: To get help in finding a substitute, contact Dale Bench, CAGO, Communications Chairman, at: DalePipeOrgan@sbcglobal.net. He can send a solicitation to the entire roster and speed up the process of acquiring a substitute. Dr. Linton Powell is chairman of the Chapter's Placement and Substitutes Committee; if you have a question about the roster, you may contact him at LintonPowell@TX.RR.com.

The Placement and Substitutes Committee maintains this roster of qualified substitutes. The roster is published in the monthly Chapter newsletter, Mixtures, and is posted on the Chapter website, www.FortWorthAGO.org.

Substitutes on this roster have met the following requirements: must be a member in good standing of the Fort Worth Chapter and either have a degree relating to organ and/or piano and/or conducting, a Guild certification (SPC, CAGO, CHM, AAGO, or FAGO), or passed an audition before the Placement & Substitutes Committee.

LEGEND: Each name on the alphabetized list is followed by qualifications shown in parentheses (type of organ related degree, American Guild of Organists certification, or audition), and type of substitute position desired: organist, choir director, and keyboard (acoustic piano, electronic keyboard, harpsichord and organ manuals only). Those with an American Guild of Organists certification (SPC, CAGO, CHM, AAGO, FAGO following their name indicates the person has passed a rigorous performance examination juried by a panel of expert organists). Telephone codes: (C) cell, (H) home, (W) work. Email address (blank if none). The roster is in two parts:

PART 1: Substitutes available Sundays and other days of the week

PART 2: Substitutes not available Sunday mornings
