The Dean's Message

Kyla K. Rosenberger
BM, MM, CAGO

Happy New Year, FWAGO!
I hope your Christmas season ended well and that you are looking forward to this gift of a new year that is upon us. Please consider closing out the Christmas season by coming to the Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival at University Christian Church on January 2nd or 3rd. The performances are at 3:00pm and 5:00pm each day and it will be a blessed experience for you of carols and joy with orchestra, handbells, choir, and organ. For full details please visit the church website at www.universitychristian.org.

We have other upcoming AGO programs for you in February, April, May and June. Please see your yearbook and keep reading the Mixtures and other notices that come to your inbox. The Executive Committee of your chapter has approved a Nominating Committee for 2016 and they will present a new slate of officers in February. I am thankful for all this organizational help.

In closing I give you a hymn text specifically for the New Year. It was written by Frances R. Havergal and is sung to AURELIA (The Church's One Foundation).

*Another year is dawning, Dear Father, let it be in working or in waiting another year with thee;
Another year of progress, Another year of praise, Another year of proving Thy presence all the days.
Another year of mercies, Of faithfulness and grace, Another year of gladness In the shining of thy face,*

*Another year of leaning Upon thy loving breast, Another year of trusting, Of quiet, happy rest.
Another year of service, Of witness for thy love,
Another year of training For holier work above.
Another year is dawning, Dear Father, let it be On earth, or else in heaven, Another year for thee.*

Your Dean,
Kyla

She was recently named organist at Ridglea Christian Church in Fort Worth.

Member and Chapter Happenings

Issac Foreman Premieres His Composition

One of our young chapter members, Issac Foreman, age 16, is serving as interim organist at First United Methodist Church in Hurst (home of a 2014 three manual Casavant pipe organ). Each year the church sponsors a grand Christmas music program for the community at large, with three presentations of the program during two days - a packed house at each production. The program features a large orchestra supplemented by organ and large choir conducted by Greg Shapely, Minister of Music. It is always a first class production that would befit Bass Hall in Fort Worth. The program this year was presented during December 13th and 14th. Issac held his own very well accompanying the orchestra and the choir. At the offertory, Issac performed his Fantasie on Adeste Fideles - a sophisticated, complex and very musical composition exploiting all the resources of the organ in both quiet and loud passages. At the production I attended, the audience was so amazed that they gave Isaac two standing ovations! Issac came to the Fort Worth Chapter when he was 11 years old for the chapter's Pipe Organ Encounter, an intense week long program to promote the organ to those under age 18. Issac is gaining great experience as an interim organist in a church with a very active music program. He studies piano and organ at Texas Christian University through a special program for young gifted musicians. A couple of years ago he taught himself to use Finale software notation and started to compose. He truly is one of our rising stars!

PIPEDREAMS IS BACK ON THE AIR!

The Dallas and Fort Worth AGO Chapters are jointly sponsoring the WRR 101.1 FM radio broadcast of Pipedreams during calendar year 2016. WRR had to drop the program the end of September, 2015, due to lack of funding. Executive Committees of both chapters approved the project. The program will be aired on WRR 101.1 FM Classical Radio every Sunday night from 10 to 11 p.m. during 2016 (and WRR also agreed to include broadcasts for the last 3 Sundays of December, 2015).

The joint chapter venture helps fulfill the AGO mission by promoting the organ and engaging wider audiences. Cost of the contract was $3,870 with each chapter paying 50% or $1,935. That's a low cost considering that engaging a concert organist from the major booking agencies is in the range of $3,000 to $5,000 just for one recital presented to usually a rather limited audience. The WRR broadcast has a 100 mile radius and reaches many who otherwise never hear organ music. The chapters will have the opportunity to consider renewing the contract for 2017 next October at the same price and provisions as the 2016 contract.

Each broadcast recognizes both chapters as sponsors at the beginning and at the end of each broadcast. Other recognition includes:

- A one minute ad within five minutes preceding and following the broadcast to promote the both chapters' AGO outreach to the community at large and to solicit members and donations.

- Five separate ads, each repeated up to 24 times and aired at the best time available Monday – Sunday during prime broadcast time (5 a.m. – 10 p.m.) during 2016.

- A poster included on WRR's website's home page in a rotating banner.

The project was proposed by Ed Ackermann, a member of both chapters. The chapter deans appointed Ed as Pipedreams Project Coordinator to manage any actions required during the contract year, including drafting and coordinating ad material to be aired or included on the WRR website.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

On Saturday, February 13 from 10 a.m. – noon, Stefan Engels will present an organ masterclass at First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth. The focus of this masterclass will be on romantic German repertoire. All are encouraged to attend and visitors are welcome. For more information please contact Robert August at 817-335-1231 or jsbach\_august@yahoo.com.

Stefan Engels joined Southern Methodist University in fall 2014 as the new Leah Young Fullinwider Endowed Centennial Chair in Music Performance at the Meadows School of the Arts. Engels joined SMU from one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious musical institutions, the University of Music and Theatre "Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy" in Leipzig, Germany, where he had served as professor of organ since 2005. Prior to that he was associate professor of organ and chair of the organ department at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey.

During his appointment in Leipzig, Engels helped shape the university's Church Music Institute as a center for organ performance and organ pedagogy of international acclaim. He also founded and served as artistic director of the European Organ Academy Leipzig, which attracts faculty and students from around the world. In 2009 the Academy was given a generous grant from the German Academic Exchange Service. Engels is also the initiator and chair of the jury for the International Competition in Organ Improvisation in Leipzig. In 2006 Engels was named artistic director of the Jordan International Organ Competition based at Columbus State University in Columbus, GA. As a juror, he is in frequent demand at international organ competitions such as the Mendelssohn Competition, the Bach Competition and the Deutscher Musikwettbewerb, all in Germany, as well as the St. Albans International Organ Festival and the Canadian International Organ Competition. Furthermore, as an advocate and specialist for the music of the late-Romantic German composer Sigfrid Karg-Elert, he founded the Karg-Elert Festtage in Leipzig, demonstrating and discovering the unique works of this Leipzig composer.

Engels maintains a vigorous international concert schedule and is a sought-after teacher, having presented lectures and master classes across Europe, North America and South Korea. Recital engagements have included Smetana Hall in Prague, St. Paul's Cathedral in London, Victoria Hall in Geneva, the Berlin Philharmonic, Gewandhaus Leipzig, Torch Centre in Seoul, St. Augustine in Vienna, Chartres Cathedral, Hallgrímskirkja Reykjavík, Sydney Cathedral, St. Jakobi Lübeck, Harvard University, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Meyerson Symphony Center in Dallas, King's College Cambridge, Spivey Hall in Atlanta, Balboa Park in San Diego and the Cadet Chapel of West Point. He was a featured recitalist at the 2006 national convention of the American Guild of Organists in Chicago.

Engels has recorded two highly acclaimed CDs with works by Marcel Dupré on the Naxos label, and one with works of Karg-Elert, Reger, Messiaen and Germani on the Priory label as part of their Great European Organ Series. His specialization in the organ works of Sigfrid Karg-Elert has resulted in the world premiere recording of the complete organ works of Karg-Elert, also on the Priory label. Of this 14-CD project, eight CDs are now available for purchase and have been reviewed to the highest international acclaim.

Engels received his broad musical education in Germany and the United States. He studied organ, piano, harpsichord, choral conducting and church music at the universities in Aachen, Düsseldorf and Cologne. From 1993 until 1998 he pursued further organ studies with Wolfgang RübSam in Chicago and the late Robert Anderson in Dallas, receiving an Artist Certificate degree from SMU Meadows in 1995. He achieved his international breakthrough when he was awarded the "Concerto Gold Medal" at the 1998 Calgary International Organ Competition. Since then he has been represented by Karen McFarlane Artists Inc. of Cleveland, Ohio.

2016 AGO GET ACQUAINTED EVENTS

What we do at “Get Acquainted” sessions?

We get to know each other better, that’s the best part.

We meet the host who presents the church’s organ, its history and something about their job; we’ve heard some amazing stories in the past.

We get introduced to an organ that maybe you’ve never played before, and a church you may have never been in. We hear new and old music played by our colleagues who are just as familiar/unfamiliar with the organ as we are. There is no obligation to perform, just come and enjoy listening to music for God’s glory.

Getting together is fun and we leave happy!

The format is this: meet, hear the organ, take turns, go have lunch.

If you are new to the FWAGO, or if you haven’t visited with your fellow AGO members in a while, pick a date and join us. It’s a great way to make new friends or renew old connections.

Here is the schedule for the next meeting:

January 28th, 2016 @ 10:45am

St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church
1200 S Davis Dr.
Arlington, TX 76013

Church is on Davis Dr, between W Mitchell St and W Park Row Dr.

10:45am – meet together, meet Todd Hughes, our host. Meet the organ: a 4 manual Dan Garland instrument of 60 ranks. Please bring some music (4 or 5 minutes) to play, the organ has an antiphonal division in the chancel, the main organ is in the rear gallery. Keep this in mind during your selections! Maybe someone can bring some music with fun echoes between gallery and chancel organs; there is a loud trumpet en chamade...hint hint.

Afterwards Dutch lunch in the area

Hope to see you there!!!
